

Richard Flint's

A DAY AT THE ZOO

Part Three

Learning To Take The Difficult Out of The Different Personalities In Your Life

Study Guide

Written by Richard Flint, CSP

Richard Flint Seminars • 1-800-368-8255 • www.RichardFlint.com

TAKING A TOUR OF THE ZOO PART THREE

Personality #13 — TURTLE

Character Traits:

1. When it's scared or nervous, it pulls its head in and pretends nothing is wrong.
2. Travels at its own pace.
3. It may be slow, but it is sure and dependable.

Zoo Keeper Notes:

Leadership Presence: Needs a: MANAGER DISCIPLINARIAN COACH

Personality Understanding:

- Its strength is its understood pace; its frustration to others is its pace.
- It will speed up, but only in its own time.

Leadership Technique:

Zoolationships: Parrot — Ant — One Hump Camel

NOTES

Personality #15 — DEER

Character Traits:

1. It's elegant in design and action.
2. Has a keen sense of hearing.
3. It's very observant.

Zoo Keeper Notes:

Leadership Presence: Needs a: MANAGER DISCIPLINARIAN COACH

Personality Understanding:

- very positive personality in the personality zoo
- it's a good listener, is trainable, and will apply what it learns
- with the right leader to guide it, there is very little the deer can't achieve
- it's a very sensitive personality

Leadership Technique:

Zoolationships: Two Hump Camel — Giraffe — Bear

NOTES

Personality #17 — BAT

Character Traits:

1. Its major source of nourishment is blood.

Zoo Keeper Notes:

Leadership Presence: Needs a: MANAGER DISCIPLINARIAN COACH

Personality Understanding:

- second most dangerous animal
- very insecure and must win at any cost
- everyone is its enemy

Leadership Technique:

Zoolationships: Monkey — Vulture — Boa

NOTES

Richard Flint Seminars
1-800-368-8255

www.RichardFlint.com